

The Detroit River International Crossing

Meetings to Discuss Relocation Issues
July 30 through August 2, 2007

The Detroit River International Crossing

■ What is the DRIC Study?

A government-sponsored study to address the need for another crossing of the Detroit River between Detroit and Windsor, and to determine the preferred location of that crossing plus: 1) the connecting plaza, where tolls are collected and Customs inspections occur; and, 2) the interchange with I-75.

▪ Purpose of This Meeting

To exchange information on: 1) the relocation needs of those who may possibly be relocated for the proposed DRIC Project; and, 2) the relocation process to be used by the Michigan Department of Transportation, if the DRIC is approved.

It is not the purpose of this meeting to acquire property.
