

The Detroit River International Crossing Study

Public Workshop Notice

December 14, 2005

The Michigan Department of Transportation in conducting a study to determine the preferred location for a new bridge over the Detroit River from Windsor, and a plaza connecting with the bridge and to I-75. The area being studied, shown below, is located up river from Zug Island to the foot of the Ambassador Bridge.

This is a view of U.S. side of analysis area.

The Community's help is needed to locate the bridge and plaza alternatives for future study. The first public workshop will be held at Southwestern High School from 7 to 9 pm on December 14, 2005. All are welcome. Refreshments will be served.
